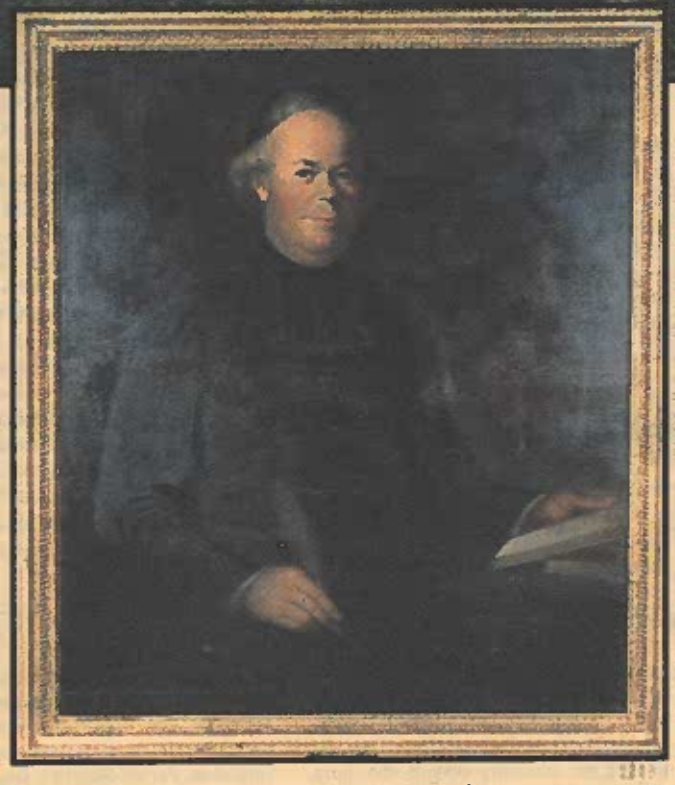
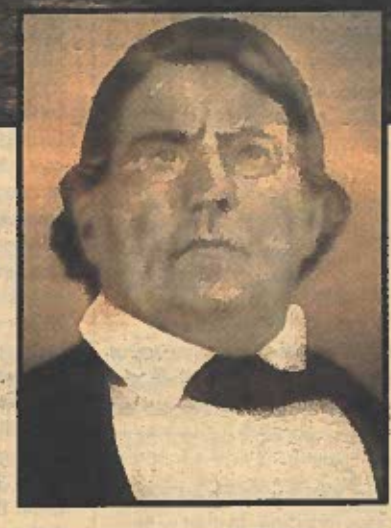
THE DAILY ADVERTISER'S

HISTORY OF ACADIANA

By Jim Bradshaw

Vol. 1, No. 1 | A publication of The Daily Advertiser dedicated to preserving Acadiana's heritage and culture. | June 24, 1997





Robert Perry, right, and Father Antoine Megret, left, were founders of the communities that battled to become the parish seat when Vermilion Parish was formed. The old Perry home, above, still stands on the banks of the Vermilion River.

Vermilion Parish

Where prairie meets the sea

Abbeville, Page 5 ✧ Cheniere au Tigre, Page 6 ✧ Gueydan, Page 10 ✧ Delcambre, Page 14